The Story and You™

Sacred Conversations

TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

My cheeks burn with embarrassment when I think about those who knocked on the Master's door to ask admittance, only to have him say, "I don't know you or where you come from." It always reminds me of a conversation I had with an elderly parishioner many years ago. I knew his name, and several things about him because others who had taken the time to be his actual friends had told me about his fascinating life.

I approached him one day, acting as if we knew each other, and his response was, "I don't know you. I've never seen you before." It was so embarrassing to be called out on my presumptuousness that just because I knew OF him, that meant that I was privy to a friendship with him I'd never earned.

I've written once before about the MOST mortifying moment of my life, when, during COVID, I failed to recognize my oldest friend at an event, just because she was wearing a mask. And yesterday, I asked my friend, whose retirement party we were celebrating, who that VERY warm and sweet woman was who greeted me at the door when I arrived. "Um," she said, "that was me. I was the one who greeted you."

It had been a few years since I'd seen her, and her hair was different, but shouldn't I have recognized her voice, or known her immediately by her warmth? Will things about us have changed so much through the years---our kindness, our outreach to strangers, our faith itself--- that the Master will say, "Who are you? I don't know where you come from"?

Recognize us, Jesus. Help us recognize you more.

Have you changed so much that Jesus might not recognize you?

Do You Have a Will or Trust?

August is National Make-a-Will Month. Would your property and other assets go to the people, charities and/or your parish you desire? Despite the importance of having a will (or trust), many never get around to drafting one. Or many have one and it's out of date.

Now is the time to get everything in order. Give The Catholic Foundation a call to learn more on how to leave our parish in your will (or trust).

ORDER OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION FOR ADULTS

IS OCIA FOR YOU?

NOT SURE? JOIN US FOR PIZZA AND Q&A ON

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 2ND, 6PM,

RSVP TO OFFICE BY AUGUST 28TH.

Are you missing out on receiving the Eucharist during Mass? Is it because you aren't Catholic, or maybe you are Catholic but haven't completed your Sacraments Holy Eucharist and/or Confirmation? Have you thought about becoming Catholic to be in full communion with the Church? We have just the class for you OCIA!

Classes will be on Tuesday evenings 6:00PM-7:30PM, beginning in September 16th.

If you are already in full communion with the Catholic church but would be interested in helping out. We are always in need of church sponsors to mentor those going through the process. Sponsors are required to attend class, retreat and several 9am Masses throughout the year.

If you have questions on the process or being a church sponsor please feel free to contact Tricia in the office or email Tom at tom.palko@saintmarkcc.org

Registration available online or in the Gathering Space!

PLEASE UPDATE YOUR INFORMATION
FOR PARISH DATABASE

It is important for the church to have updated information on file for your family. The last update was 2012. The information you provide never leaves St. Mark. No entity including The Archdiocese will ever have access to this information. Anyone over the age of 18 should have their own file in the database.

Why is it important that you are registered if you haven't registered yet? Any donations made provide you with a tax document at year end. More importantly you may be asked to be a Godparent or Confirmation Sponsor, or want your children in the Catholic school, want a funeral luncheon when a spouse, parent or child passes. We cannot sign for or provide these services if you are not registered. Do you know that you can be registered at more than one parish?

So please take 5 minutes to fill out the parish registration form, even if you know nothing has changed, it is very costly for the church to mail these forms out. Forms are available in the gathering space, or online under Parish Registration information. Forms can be dropped off at Mass, in the Parish office or emailed to: t.palko@saintmarkcc.org if you have any questions please feel free to contact Tricia in the parish office.
