The Story and You™

Sacred Conversations

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

I have come that you might have life, and have it in abundance. Who can resist the One who promises that to each of us? I can't. I never have been able to resist Jesus, and that grace has brought me nothing but blessing every day of my life.

Imagine Jesus, using the language of sheep-tending, trying to draw the Pharisees into the new life that is their inheritance. He reminds them of the sheep-gate, and how the sheep won't enter until the gate-keeper opens it. The Pharisees just stare at him. Okay, he says, let's try this: the sheep will only follow the good shepherd. They know the voice of the shepherd who truly cares for their welfare, and they won't follow the thieves and robbers. The Pharisees look dumbly ahead. They're just not getting it.

LOOK, says an exasperated Jesus. I AM THE GATE. I AM YOUR LIFE, YOUR HOPE, YOUR SECURITY, YOUR PEACE. He can't say it more clearly than that. But how can he be the long-awaited Messiah when he has no army, no generals to command, breaks the laws of the Sabbath, he let that adulteress go free, and he eats and drinks with sinners?

Oh, says Jesus, if today you would just hear my voice. I'm calling you—that's YOU he's talking to, by the way. Dig deep. Listen with all your heart. Tune out all soul-deadening clamor of the culture. If you seek me, says Jesus, you will find me. If you seek me with all of your heart I will let myself be found by you.

Abundant life? Oh, yeah. Call us by name, Good Shepherd. You're coming in loud and clear.

In what ways are you tuning in to the voice of Jesus?
