THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

We have finally arrived at my favorite feast of the year. I find myself speeding through Advent and the first two weeks of Christmas so that we can finally remember those courageous (and curious) Magi, that blazing STAR, vicious Herod, and the brave Mother and Father who, like millions of migrants today, risked their lives in order to shepherd their precious Child to safety.

I love that the Magi (probably Persian astrologers) knew NOTHING of Judaism, but left their entire lives behind to “traverse afar” to seek a King whose birth must surely be heralded by that bright, bright STAR.

I love that they were so unaware of the reputation of the King of Judea that they actually asked Herod, upon being summoned by him, where they could find this “newborn King of the Jews!” How could they not have heard that he, driven by ruthless paranoia, killed his beloved wife Mariamne and two of their sons? THIS is who they’re asking about a newborn King?

I love that the STAR they had seen at its rising moved just ahead of them, and then stopped over “the place where the child was.” I had that experience once, driving down a dark highway in the fog at 10 pm. Out of nowhere, a large truck moved ahead of me, put on its brights, and stayed just in front of me until I was close to home.

I love that they brought the very gifts prophesied by Isaiah: gold (kingship), frankincense (incense used in priestly anointings), and myrrh (a prefigure of his death).

Mostly, I love that we are called to seek him, too. A very wise thing to do.

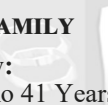

What touches you the most about this feast?

For Your Reflection

Key Passage: Then Herod sent the [magi] to Bethlehem, saying, "Go and search diligently for the child; and when you have found him bring me word so that I may also go and pay him homage." (Matthew 2:8)

Adult Question: When have you been jealous or fearful of another person? When are such feelings harmful?

Child Question: When have you been jealous because something good happened to another person instead of you? What is the problem with feeling that way?

HAVE YOU MOVED OR CHANGED YOUR PHONE NUMBER?

Blessing with the Epiphany Chalk

Chalk is used because it symbolizes the dust of the earth from which we were made. The Chalk is used to mark the following letters and numbers over the main door of your home. The following blessing may be used as they are written by one of the parents as the other writes:

20 + C + M + B + 26

The numerals consecrate the new year. The initials remind us of the legendary names of the magi - Caspar, Melchior, and Balthasar - and also stand for the Latin motto: Christus Mansionem Benedicat, which means May Christ bless this house.

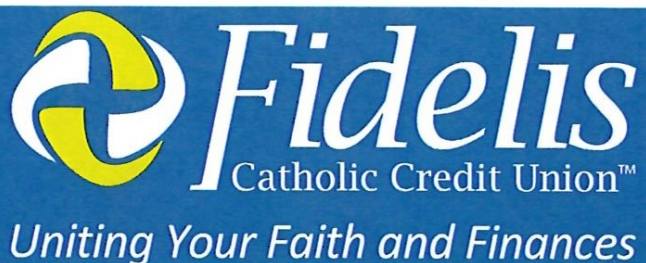

Let us pray:

Lord, as we begin a new year in this home, we ask for your protection and seek your guidance as we welcome others into our hearts. May our visitors always find the presence of Jesus in our home especially as we welcome the stranger who seeks to know Christ among us. Bless our home and all who join us. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen!
